ST. James's, May 25. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to Her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs to Her Majeſty of the Provoſt, Bailiffs and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Inveraray; preſented by Mr. David Campbell, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects do with the utmoſt Humility beg leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon this early Effect of the late happy Union, the Preſervation of this part of the united Kingdom from immediate Tyranny and Slavery, and the Security of the Peace of the whole Iſland.

We are ſo ſenſible that our only Safety depends upon Your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration of the Government, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſh'd, that we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our juſt Indignation of the late intended Invaſion of this Kingdom by the French King, in Name of one of Your Majeſty's Subjects, whom he has ſet up a rebellious Pretender to Your Crown, and who has impiouſly aſſumed to himſelf thoſe Titles Your Majeſty alone has an indiſputable Right to enjoy, and which we ſhall always think our indiſpenſible Duty with our Lives and Fortunes to maintain.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord-Lieutenant, High-Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of your Majeſty's County of Lincoln; preſented to Her Majeſty by the Earl of Sunderland, in the Abſence of the Rt. Hon. the Lord Great-Chamberlain.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE Affront and Indignity offer'd to your Majeſty by the late Endeavours of the French King, to invade your united Kingdom of Great Britain, in the Name of the pretended Prince of Wales, juſtly deſerves the Indignation of all your Majeſty's good Subjects.

And altho' ſeveral are before us in their Addreſſes, yet we beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we have the utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of this Traiterous Deſign, (ſo like the Perſon that chiefly promoted it,) and that none ſhall be more early than our ſelves, on all Occaſions, to hazard and ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, in defence of your Majeſty's Perſon, and the Succeſſion as Eſtabliſh'd by Act of Parliament, againſt the Pretender, and all other Diſturbers of your Majeſty's Government both at Home and Abroad.

That God Almighty wou'd pleaſe to preſerve and protect your ſacred Perſon, give Succeſs to your Fleets and Armies, and crown you with the Bleſſings of Peace, and a long and happy Reign, is and ever ſhall be the earneſt and hearty Prayers of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Bailiffs and Town-Council of the Royal Borough of Renfrew; preſented by Mr. David Campbell, introduc'd by his Grace the Duke of Somerſet.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Venice, May 18. N. S. Letters from Rome ſay, That the Pope calls frequent Congregations, to conſult upon the preſent Difficulties in which that Court is involv'd; among others, that occaſion'd by the Arrival of the Queen of Spain in Italy is often debated, without coming to any Reſolution. Tho' it was formerly intended to ſend a Legate a Latere to compliment her Majeſty, they are now ſo perplex'd in what manner and under what Title he ſhall perform the Ceremony, that it is now believ'd the Court of Rome will ſend no Embaſſay on that Occaſion. The Miſunderſtanding between Rome and this Republick encreaſes. The Venetians take all Veſſels belonging to the Eccleſiaſtical Dominions, and have lately landed in the Ferrareze, whence they carried off many Heads of Cattle, and pillag'd the Villages. There has alſo happen'd lately a warm Diſpute between ſome Barks of Fermo, and others of Venice, wherein ſeveral Men were kill'd. The Pope does not think fit to ſhow his Reſentment againſt theſe Inſults, but has written to the French King, and deſires his Mediation between this State and Rome. In the mean time the Venetians have refus'd to receive any Miniſter from thence. Yeſterday being Aſcenſion-Day, all things were prepar'd for the Ceremony which is annually perform'd by the Doge, and is call'd the Marriage with the Sea; but the Weather proving Tempeſtuous, it was deferr'd to another Day.

Berlin, May 22. N. S. On the 13th Inſtant the young Prince, Son to the Prince Royal, departed this Life. The Prince and Princeſs Royal are return'd from Hanover, but have not yet appear'd in Publick. His Majeſty is gone to Carlſtadt, and an Inſtruction is preparing to enable the Prince Royal to act in Affairs of State during the King's Abſence. Letters from Warſaw of the 15th Inſtant ſay, that they have no longer hopes of bringing over the General of the Crown to the Intereſts of King Staniſlaus; and that he has lately forc'd the Palatine of Sandomir both to appear at the Congreſs of Opatow, and reinforce the Crown Army with 500 Dragoons.

Hamburgh, May 29. N. S. The Difficulties under which this City has ſo long labour'd are at laſt adjuſted, Mr. Robinſon the Britiſh Miniſter to the Court of Sweden, in Conjunction with Mr. Wich Her Majeſty's Reſident here, interpos'd in this Affair with ſo great Zeal and Prudence, that he has obtain'd the univerſal Eſteem of the Magiſtracy and People of this City, as well as highly deſerved of the Britiſh Company reſiding in it. The Town has conſented to take in 2000 Foot and 300 Horſe for the Support of the Imperial Commiſſion, the reſt of the Troops of the lower Circle are to March back according to their Orders, as ſoon as things ſhould be compos'd in this Place.

From the Camp at St. Renelde, May 31. N. S. On Tueſday the 29th Inſtant the Army Commanded by His Grace the Duke of Marlborough, made a Movement from Bellinghen, and came to this Place, with the Right at Herſelinghen, and the left at Lembecq. The Enemy continue in their Camp at Soignies, where their heavy Baggage join'd them the 29th from Mons, to which Place they have ſent it back this Day; whereupon his Grace has given Orders to our Army to be in a readineſs to march at an Hour's warning. Great Numbers of Deſerters are already come over to us from the Enemy, and amongſt them ſeveral of our Men who were taken at the Battel of Almanza, notwithſtanding that Guards are poſted all along their Front to keep the Men within their Camp.

Bruſſels, May 31. N. S. Letters from Madrid of the 16th adviſe, That the Duke of Orleans was at Lerida on the 12th, and intended to march towards Tortoſa on the 19th; ſome Artillery, and part of the Troops, having already paſs'd the Ebro at Caſpe. The Elector of Bavaria paſs'd through Metz on the 18th, and arriv'd at Straſburgh on the 21ſt. The Mareſchal de Villars took leave of the King on the 25th, and deſign'd to ſet out for Dauphine on the 29th. Yeſterday Don Joſeph de Calvo, who has been convicted of writing into Spain ſeveral injurious Libels reflecting upon the Government and Nobility here, was convey'd to a Scaffold on the Place call'd the Sablon, where his Writtings were burn'd by the Hand of the common Hangman, and the Offender himſelf condemn'd to perpetual Impriſonment. He diſown'd the greater part of the Papers for which he was accus'd, and proteſted againſt the Sentence, as having been pronounc'd by Civil Judges, and inſiſted that a Commiſſary at War, as he was, ought to have been try'd by a Council of Military Officers. Deſerters who are juſt now come from the Enemies Camp report, they deſign to march to morrow.
